FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dr. Darlene McCord To Speak At Gilda's Club Of The Quad Cities
"Lunch and Learn" Hosted By Pinnaclife, Inc.

CORALVILLE, IA, June 18, 2012--Dr. Darlene McCord of Pinnaclife, Biochemist and Author of "Living Well at 100" will discuss a journey of wellness through nutrition, exercise and meditation. The event will be held in Davenport, Iowa at 1234 East River Drive on Tuesday, June 26th from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM. The lunch will be provided by Pinnaclife.

Gilda's Club is a cancer support center for the Quad Cities, dedicated to enriching the lives of those with cancer. Pinnaclife partners with Gilda's Club as their goals of providing hope through community support align perfectly with those of Pinnaclife.

Dr. McCord is a cancer survivor herself and enjoys providing hope and encouragement to those going through the familiar hardships involved with the disease. Dr. McCord's story serves as inspiration to patients looking for help and healthcare providers looking for new ways to support their patients.

The event is filling up quickly and space is limited. Please reserve your seat by Friday, June 22nd. Contact Pam at Gilda's Club via phone at 563-326-7504 or by email at pam@gildasclubqc.org to RSVP.
